Dear Alan

I am replying to your Written Assembly Question tabled on 3rd May 2002.

Specific conditions are regarded as commercially confidential but generally offer letters set out the overall timescale for a company's investment in a project and the capital equipment and/or job numbers that will trigger the payments of instalments of RSA. There are also conditions relating to the re-payment of grant should the investment and/or jobs fail to be maintained for a defined period after the completion of the project.

Yours

Andrew
