These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of, and Schedule 1 to, the Pollution Prevention and Control Act 1999(a).

The Secretary of State, in relation to England, and the Welsh Ministers, in relation to Wales, have in accordance with section 2(4) of that Act consulted—

- (a) the Environment Agency;
- (b) such bodies or persons appearing to them to be representative of the interests of local government, industry, agriculture and small businesses respectively as they consider appropriate; and
- (c) such other bodies or persons as they consider appropriate.

A draft of this instrument has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament and by the National Assembly for Wales pursuant to section 2(8) and (9)(d) and (e) of that Act(b).

Accordingly, the Secretary of State in relation to England, and the Welsh Ministers in relation to Wales, make the following Regulations—

PART 1
Introduction

Citation, application and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Groundwater (England and Wales) Regulations 2009; they apply in England and Wales and come into force on the day after they are made.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

- (a) 1999 c. 24. Functions of the Secretary of State under section 2 (except in relation to offshore oil and gas exploration and exploitation), so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, were transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by article 3 of S.I. 2005/1958. Those functions were then transferred to the Welsh Ministers by paragraph 30 of Schedule 11 to the Government of Wales Act 2006 (c. 32).
 - (b) The reference in section 2(8) to approval by each House of Parliament has effect in relation to exercise of functions by the Welsh Ministers as if it were a reference to approval by the National Assembly for Wales by virtue of paragraph 33 of Schedule 11 to the Government of Wales Act 2006.

“the Agency” means the Environment Agency;

“direct input” in relation to groundwater means the introduction of a pollutant into groundwater without percolation through soil or subsoil;

“groundwater” means all water which is below the surface of the ground in the saturation zone and in direct contact with the ground or subsoil;

“indirect input” in relation to groundwater means the introduction of a pollutant into groundwater after percolation through soil or subsoil;

“permit” means any of the following in so far as they relate to groundwater—

- (a) a permit under regulation 13;
- (b) a discharge consent within the meaning of section 91(8) of the Water Resources Act 1991(a);

- (d) the registration of mobile radioactive apparatus under section 10 of the Radioactive Substances Act 1993(c); or
- (e) an authorisation for disposal in accordance with section 13 of the Radioactive Substances Act 1993;

“pollutant” means any substance liable to cause pollution;

“pollution” means the direct or indirect introduction, as a result of human activity, of substances or heat into the air, water or land which may be harmful to human health or the quality of aquatic ecosystems or terrestrial ecosystems directly depending on aquatic ecosystems, which result in damage to material property, or which impair or interfere with amenities and other legitimate uses of the environment.

Meaning of “hazardous substance”

3.—(1) A hazardous substance is any substance or group of substances that are toxic, persistent and liable to bio-accumulate.

(2) This includes in particular the following when they are toxic, persistent and liable to bio-accumulate—

- (a) organohalogen compounds and substances which may form such compounds in the aquatic environment;
- (b) organophosphorous compounds;
- (c) organotin compounds;
- (d) substances and preparations, or the breakdown products of such, which have been proved to possess carcinogenic or mutagenic properties or properties which may affect steroidogenic, thyroid, reproduction or other endocrine-related functions in or via the aquatic environment;

- (f) cyanides;
- (g) metals (in particular cadmium and mercury) and their compounds;

(b) S. I. 2007/3538.
(c) 1993 c. 12.

Meaning of “non-hazardous pollutant”

4. A non-hazardous pollutant is any pollutant other than a hazardous substance.

Exceptions

5. These Regulations do not apply in relation to the consequences of accidents or exceptional circumstances of natural cause that could not reasonably have been foreseen, avoided or mitigated.

Exemptions granted by the Agency

6.—(1) The Agency may exempt from the requirement for a permit, in any specific case or class of case, a discharge or activity that would result in—

- (a) an input of a pollutant into groundwater of a quantity and concentration so small as to obviate any present or future danger of deterioration in the quality of the receiving groundwater;
- (b) an input of a pollutant into groundwater that, for technical reasons, is incapable of being prevented or limited without using—
 - (i) measures that would increase risks to human health or to the quality of the environment as a whole; or
 - (ii) disproportionately costly measures to remove quantities of pollutants from, or otherwise control their percolation in, contaminated ground or subsoil.

(2) The Agency must keep a record of all exemptions granted under this regulation.

PART 2

Permits

Granting a permit

7. The Agency, the Secretary of State and Welsh Ministers must, for the purposes of implementing—

- (a) Directive 2000/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council (establishing a framework for Community action in the field of water policy(a)), or
- (b) Directive 2006/118/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council (on the protection of groundwater against pollution and deterioration(b)), comply with these Regulations in exercising their functions in relation to permits.

Preventing the input of hazardous substances into groundwater

8. The Agency must, in granting a permit, take all necessary measures to prevent the input of any hazardous substance into groundwater.

Permits relating to non-hazardous pollutants to avoid pollution

9. The Agency must, in granting a permit, take all necessary measures to limit the input of non-hazardous pollutants into groundwater so as to ensure that such inputs do not cause pollution in groundwater.

(a) OJ No L327, 22.12.2000, p. 1 as last amended by Directive 2008/105/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council (OJ No L 348, 24.12.2008, p. 84).
(b) OJ No. L372, 27.12.2006, p. 19.

Discharges that may be permitted

10. Notwithstanding regulations 8 and 9, provided it does not compromise the achievement of any of the environmental objectives relating to groundwater in Article 4 of Directive 2000/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council, the Agency may grant a permit for—

- (a) the injection of water containing substances resulting from the operations for exploration and extraction of hydrocarbons or mining activities, and injection of water for technical reasons, into geological formations from which hydrocarbons or other substances have been extracted or into geological formations which for natural reasons are permanently unsuitable for other purposes, provided that the injection does not contain substances other than those resulting from the above operations;
- (b) the reinjection of pumped groundwater from mines and quarries or associated with the construction or maintenance of civil engineering works;
- (c) the injection of natural gas or liquefied petroleum gas for storage purposes into geological formations which for natural reasons are permanently unsuitable for other purposes;
- (d) the injection of natural gas or liquefied petroleum gas for storage purposes into other geological formations where there is an overriding need for security of gas supply, and where the injection is such as to prevent any present or future danger of deterioration in the quality of any receiving groundwater;
- (e) construction, civil engineering and building works and similar activities on, or in the ground which come into contact with groundwater;
- (f) discharges of small quantities of substances for scientific purposes for characterisation, protection or remediation of water bodies limited to the amount strictly necessary for the purposes concerned;
- (g) reinjection into the same aquifer of water used for geothermal purposes;
- (h) inputs of pollutants that are the result of—
 - (i) interventions in surface waters for the purposes, amongst others, of mitigating the effects of floods and droughts, and for the management of waters and waterways;
 - (ii) artificial recharge or augmentation of groundwater bodies for the purposes of groundwater management.

Permits generally

11.—(1) When the Agency receives an application for a permit that might lead to the discharge of a pollutant, it must ensure that all necessary investigations have been carried out to ensure that it grants any permit in accordance with regulation 8 or 9.

(2) If it grants a permit, it must include conditions requiring all necessary technical precautions to be observed to ensure the objectives of regulations 8 and 9 are achieved.

(3) A permit may not be granted without examination of—

- (a) the hydrogeological conditions of the area concerned,
- (b) the possible purifying powers of the soil and subsoil, and
- (c) the risk of pollution and alteration of the quality of the groundwater from the discharge, and without establishing whether the input of pollutants into groundwater is a satisfactory solution from the point of view of the environment.

(4) A permit may only be granted if the Agency has checked that the groundwater (and, in particular, its quality) will undergo the requisite surveillance.

Review of permits

12.—(1) A permit may be reviewed at any time.

(2) All permits granted before the coming into force of these Regulations must be reviewed before 22nd December 2012.

(3) The Agency must on review assess compliance with the conditions of the permit, and if the conditions are not complied with, the appropriate steps must be taken to ensure compliance including, if necessary, the revocation of the permit.

PART 3

Discharge of a hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant

Discharge of a hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant

13.—(1) It is an offence to cause or knowingly permit the discharge of any hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant in circumstances that might lead to an indirect input of that hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant into groundwater unless it is carried on under and in accordance with a permit granted by the Agency under this regulation.

But this does not apply in relation to—

- (a) a discharge that requires a discharge consent within the meaning of section 91(8) of the Water Resources Act 1991;
- (b) the operation of a regulated facility under the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) Regulations 2007;
- (c) a disposal that requires an authorisation under section 13 of the Radioactive Substances Act 1993; or
- (d) the keeping or use of mobile radioactive apparatus that requires a registration under section 10 of that Act.

(2) An operator of a highway drain (or, until 1st January 2012, a person using a domestic septic tank or sewage treatment plant with a daily discharge of less than 2m³) does not commit an offence under this regulation unless the Agency has served a notice on that person under regulation 18 in relation to that discharge, and the operator has failed to comply with that notice.

(3) In this regulation “highway drain” means a drain which a highway authority or other person is entitled to keep open by virtue of section 100 of the Highways Act 1980(a).

Application of the Water Resources Act 1991

14. Section 88(1) of the Water Resources Act 1991(b) (defences in relation to authorised discharges) applies in relation to a permit under regulation 13 as if the reference to the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) Regulations 2007 included a reference to these Regulations.

Transfer of a permit granted under regulation 13

15. Paragraph 11 of Schedule 10 to the Water Resources Act 1991 (transfer of discharge consents) applies in relation to a permit granted under regulation 13 as if—

- (a) any reference to a consent included a reference to such a permit;
- (b) references to paragraphs 3 and 6 of that Schedule were references to regulation 13; and
- (c) references to carrying on or making discharges were references to carrying on the activities regulated by the permit.

(a) 1980 c. 66.
(b) 1991 c. 57.

Grant of a permit under regulation 13

- 16.—(1) An application for a permit under regulation 13 must be made to the Agency.
- (2) If in any case the Agency considers that there are special reasons why the application should be advertised, it may require the applicant to advertise the application in a specified manner.
- (3) A permit may be subject to conditions.
- (4) If the Agency refuses an application for a permit it must give its reasons.
- (5) The Agency may by notice in writing at any time vary or revoke the permit, but the notice must give the Agency's reasons.
- (6) A revocation does not have effect until three months from the service of the notice.
- (7) A person may within three months appeal against a refusal, variation or revocation of a permit to the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers as appropriate, but, unless the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers direct otherwise—
- (a) a variation has effect pending the appeal, and
 - (b) a revocation does not have effect pending the appeal.

PART 4

Enforcement and penalties

Power to require the provision of information

- 17.—(1) For the purposes of discharging its functions under these Regulations, the Agency may, by notice served on any person, require that person to provide, in such form and within such period as is specified in the notice, the information specified in the notice.
- (2) A notice may require a person to provide any information where that requirement is reasonable, including the provision of information—
- (a) not in the person's possession; and
 - (b) which would not usually come into the person's possession.
- (3) Failure to comply with a notice without reasonable excuse is an offence.

Prohibition notice

- 18.—(1) Where—
- (a) any person is carrying on, or proposing to carry on, any activity on or in the ground; and
 - (b) that activity might lead to the input into groundwater of any hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant, the Agency may serve notice in writing on that person prohibiting the carrying on of that activity.

- (2) Failure to comply with a notice is an offence.

Appeals against notices

- 19.—(1) Any person who is aggrieved by a notice under regulation 18 may within 21 days of service of the notice appeal to the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers as appropriate.
- (2) The Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers may cancel the notice or confirm it.
- (3) The notice must be complied with pending appeal unless otherwise directed by the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers.

Codes of practice

20.—(1) The Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers may approve for the purposes of these Regulations codes of practice issued for the purpose of giving practical guidance to persons engaged in any activity that may result in discharging hazardous substances or non-hazardous pollutants on the steps they should take to prevent them from entering groundwater.

(2) The Agency must take into account whether or not such a code of practice is being or is likely to be complied with before taking any enforcement action under these Regulations.

(3) A code of practice must be publicised as the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers see fit.

Particulars to be included in registers

21.—(1) The Agency must, as soon as reasonably practicable, enter on registers maintained by it under section 190 of the Water Resources Act 1991(a) full particulars of—

(2) For the purposes of such proceedings—

- (b) section 33 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925(a) and Schedule 3 to the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(b) apply in relation to the partnership or association as they apply in relation to a body corporate.

(3) A fine imposed on a partnership or association on its conviction of an offence under these Regulations is to be paid out of the funds of the partnership or association.

(4) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by a partnership is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a partner, that partner (as well as the partnership) is guilty of the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

For these purposes, “partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations implement in England and Wales Article 6 of Directive 2006/118/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2006 on the protection of groundwater against pollution and deterioration, OJ No. L372, 27.12.2006, p.19. They continue to implement Directive 2000/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council (establishing a framework for Community action in the field of water policy, OJ No L 327, 22.12.2000, p. 60).

They revoke and replace the Groundwater Regulations 1998.

Part 1 of the Regulations is introductory.

Part 2 places requirements on the Environment Agency when they grant a permit under these Regulations, a consent under section 91(8) of the Water Resources Act 1991 and (with exceptions) an environmental permit under the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) Regulations 2007.

Part 3 creates an offence of discharge of a hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant without a permit, and provision as to how a permit for this is applied for.

Part 4 is concerned with enforcement. Regulation 17 gives the Agency powers to require information, and regulation 18 gives the Agency powers to serve notices prohibiting activities. Regulation 21 provides for codes of practice.

A person guilty of an offence under regulation 13 (discharge of a hazardous substance or non-hazardous pollutant) or regulation 18 (prohibition notices) is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding £50,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both; or
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or imprisonment not exceeding 5 years, or to both.

A person guilty of an offence under regulation 17 (provision of information) is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or both, or
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both.

A full regulatory impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector has been prepared and is available on the Defra website at www.defra.gov.uk.
