(Gweler Atodiad 1 ar gyfer y darn perthnasol o'r trawsgrifiad o'r cyfarfod ar 25 Mehefin 2008, ac Atodiad 2 ar gyfer y llythyr a anfonwyd gan y cadeirydd at Gyngor Bro Morgannwg)

Ystyriaeth bellach

20 Tachwedd 2008

Adolygodd y pwyllgor hynt y ddeiseb a nododd nad oedd wedi cael ymateb oddi wrth Gyngor Bro Morgannwg, a chytunodd i ysgrifennu at y Cyngor eto.

13 Ionawr 2009

Ystyriodd y pwyllgor ymateb gan Gyngor Bro Morgannwg. Cadarnhaodd yr ymateb mai Cyngor Bro Morgannwg yw perchennog y maes parcio. Ni all y pwyllgor ymwneud â materion sydd i'w penderfynu gan gynghorau lleol, felly cytunodd i anfon y ddeiseb i Gyngor Bro Morgannwg i gael ei hystyried yn unol â'i reolau ei hun. Cytunodd y pwyllgor wedyn i gau'r ddeiseb gan nad oedd yn teimlo bod modd mynd â hi ymhellach.

(Gweler Atodiad 1 ar gyfer y darn perthnasol o'r trawsgrifiad o'r cyfarfod ar 13 Ionawr 2009, ac atodiad 2 am yr ymateb oddi wrth Gyngor Bro Morgannwg)

Darn perthansol o Drawsgrifiadau Cyfarfodydd y Pwyllgor Deisebau

25 Mehefin 2008

Val Lloyd: The third new petition this morning is on St Illtyd's car park:

'We ask that the National Assembly for Wales urges the Welsh Assembly Government to investigate the safety of the car park outside St Illtyd Primary School, Llantwit Major, and to work with the Vale of Glamorgan Council to make it safe.'

There is a good suggestion that we write to the Vale of Glamorgan Council to ask it to provide the committee with details of the car park's ownership, and whether this matter falls within its competence. I have no idea of the geography—I do not know whether you do, Andrew.

Andrew R.T. Davies: I have a vague idea of it. I have not been made aware of this petition to date, even though it falls within my region. However, knowing the area vaguely, a degree of clarity is needed as to exactly what we are talking about here, because it is a multi-use site. We also need to find out what the Vale of Glamorgan Council has been doing, and proposes to do, to try to resolve the issue in the first instance. That would be a sensible way of moving this forward.

Val Lloyd: I agree. Could we also try to get a map to inform our deliberations next time? I always find it more helpful if I have a map—I do not know about you.

Andrew R.T. Davies: The case up in Caerphilly was more about the road outside the school, but there seems to be a strand coming through in that there have been several petitions about road safety and the proximity of roads to schools. I believe that this is the third or fourth one now.

Val Lloyd: Of course, many schools were built before the roads were quite as busy. They reflect the geography of an area and the distribution of houses and, as time goes on, that changes, and roads become busier, so we are likely to have more. Therefore, we will take that twofold approach: we will get a map that shows the car park in relation to the school, and we will write to the Vale of Glamorgan Council to ask about ownership details and about how it has dealt with it to date.

20 Tachwedd 2008

Val Lloyd: We last considered the petition on St Illtyd's car park, P-03-135, in June, and we wrote to the Vale of Glamorgan Council, asking for a response about ownership. We have not had a reply.

Michael German: Chase them, Chair.

Val Lloyd: Yes, we will chase them.

13 Ionawr 2009

Val Lloyd: The next petition, P-03-135, is on St Illtyd's car park. We agreed to write to the Vale of Glamorgan Council to determine ownership of the car park. The council has responded, and has told us that it is owned by the local authority. So, I do not think that there is any action that we can take forward, except to inform the petitioner, close the petition, and refer it to the Vale of Glamorgan Council, as we are not enabled to deal with it in this circumstance.

Andrew R.T. Davies: I know that I am stating the obvious, but could we reinforce the point that, as it is owned by the local authority, there is literally nothing that we can do? We have tried to set a precedent that we do not delve into local authority issues, because of a conflict of interests.

Michael German: We could discuss these issues at our next meeting.

Val Lloyd: We have maintained that all along, Andrew. It is not specific to this petition; we have abided by that principle. So, we will close that petition, but we will write to the petitioners, explaining our reasons for closing it, and their potential course of action.
