25 November 2024

Dear Rhun,

The National Lottery Community Fund allocates the dormant assets scheme funds in Wales on behalf of the Welsh Government.

Following a consultation period on future spending purposes for dormant assets funding in Wales, the Welsh Government drafted refreshed Policy Guidelines which were issued to the National Lottery Community Fund in September 2024.

A summary of the consultation responses published in May captures the areas for future funding at the end of the document: Consultation Template

The National Lottery Community Fund will in due course conduct further consultation with relevant stakeholders to develop the detail of future funding schemes that aim to support current and future generations.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Drakeford AS/MS
