Dear Natasha

I am writing in response to your written question reference WQ84481.

This information is not currently readily available via our data sources. It is assumed the number of hours lost in congestion is required between January 2021 and December 2021 or to date, not December 2022 as you have requested.

My officials could provide this information, but they would require more time to interrogate the data that is available. The number of hours lost would only be approximate when and if it can be provided.

Yours sincerely

Lee Waters AS/MS
Y Dirprwy Weinidog Newid Hinsawdd
Deputy Minister for Climate Change
