Dear Paul,

I am writing in response to your question to the Minister for Trefnydd on 7 June regarding reducing the speed limit on the A40 in Scleddau. Apologies for the delayed response.

Our finances are extremely challenging this year with multiple high priority demands in view. It has been a difficult decision to make, but I reiterate that we are committed to delivering the new 40 mph speed limit on the A40 at Scleddau, however, current capital budget allocations for trunk road network operations in 2022/23 require all projects to be re-evaluated, along with all other eligible projects as part of the 2023/24 allocations, or earlier if further funding becomes available.

Yours sincerely,

Lee Waters AS/MS
