

940

Hywel Dda writes down the first laws in Wales.

1536

Henry VIII's Act of Union.

Wales must now follow the same laws as England.

1884

Reform Act

All British men over 21 can vote if they've lived in the same area for over a year.

1918

Women over 30 have the right to vote.

1964

The Labour Party creates the Welsh Office and Secretary of State for Wales.

1979

Referendum

People of Wales vote against a Parliament for Wales.

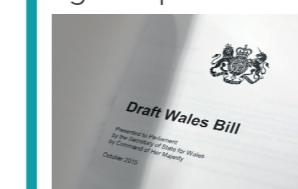

1999

Setting up of the National Assembly for Wales.

2011

The Welsh Parliament has the right to pass laws.

2020

Voting age is lowered to 16 years old for Senedd Elections.

2026

Change the number of Members of the Senedd to 96 and 16 new constituencies.

Owain Glyndŵr holds the first Assembly at Machynlleth.

1404

Newport Rising

Part of the Chartist's movement, for the right to vote and better representation for working class people in Westminster.

1839

David Lloyd George elected

The first Welshman to become Prime Minister of the UK.

1916

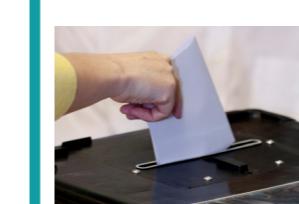

Women have the right to vote at 21.

1928

Voting age is lowered to 18 in the UK.

1969

1997

Referendum

The people of Wales voted for establishing a Parliament for Wales.

2006

The Senedd is opened.

The home of the National Assembly for Wales.

2018

Welsh Youth Parliament established to give 11–18 year olds a stronger voice.

Welsh Democracy Journey