Motion for short debate on 15 June 1999

David Davies (Monmouth); That this Assembly resolves to recognise the public demand in Monmouthshire for Welsh to be deemed optional at Ket Stage 4. (M34JG)

Motion for debate on 16 June 1999

Rod Richards, David Davies, William Graham, Nick Bourne, David Melding, Alun Cairns, Jonathan Morgan, Peter Rogers, Glyn Davies

That this Assembly condemns the Government for wasting public money on the Assembly itself when money would be better spent on public services. (M32JG)

Motion for debate on 16 June 1999

Gareth Jones, Cynog Dafis (Tabled in Welsh)

The National Assembly note the general opposition in Wales to the principle that teachers' pay should be linked to results and resolves that it will seek to identify an alternative method of reforming the salaries system to that set out in the London governments' current proposals, so as to improve teachers morale and raise standards, while ensuring that salary levels in Wales remain comparable with England. (M32JG)

Motion tabled with no date for debate

Janet Ryder, Pauline Jarman, Geraint Davies

We call upon the Secretary for Environment & Local Government to instigate a full public inquiry into the establishment, design and management of the Nantygwyddon landfill site, Rhondda, and also to enquire into the engineering, environmental and health risks associated with this site. [R]
