Dear Llyr,

Further to your question (no.5) to the Minister for Finance and Trefnydd during Business Questions on 15 September, I am pleased to provide an update.

I provided an update on the Welsh Government's position on second homes during the Opposition Motion Debate on 23 September. During the debate I offered to meet opposition Members of the Senedd to discuss the issues. As you know, the Ministers for Finance and Trefnydd, and Mental Health, Well-being and the Welsh Language and I met a cross-party group, including yourself, on 5 November, for that purpose. We are arranging a follow-up with the group in December and, subsequently, I will make a Written Ministerial Statement, in January, providing a further update.

Yours sincerely

Julie James AS/MS
