Subordinate Legislation

Welcome to the Subordinate Legislation Committee pages.

The Subordinate Legislation Committee plays the key role in the technical scrutiny of subordinate legislation and delegated powers in Bills the Scottish Parliament and we hope that you will be able to find all the information you need about our activities on these pages.

Links

- ▶ Subordinate Legislation News Releases
- ▶ Follow this link to the previous Subordinate Legislation Committee pages \(Session 1\)

Here you can access all our reports, find out about our meetings and read the public papers prepared for or approved by the Committee. You will also find contact details for the Committee and profiles of the Members of the Committee.

There may also occasions when you may to contribute to the work of the Committee. The "current business" section includes details of inquiries the Committee is carrying out and any "general call for evidence" – which provides an opportunity for all interested parties to make submissions.
